

Clara Poletti

Clara Poletti is a Member of the Board of ARERA, the independent Italian Regulatory Authority for Energy, Networks and Environment. She serves as Chair of the Board of Regulators of ACER, the European Agency for the Cooperation of Energy Regulators and ARERA's delegate to CEER, the Council of European Energy Regulators.

She has over twenty years of experience in the energy and environmental sectors. In 1997, she contributed to the establishment of the Regulatory Authority for Electricity and Gas and has since been involved in the regulation of the energy sectors, water services, and waste management, at both the national and European levels.

From 2007 to 2011, she served as the Director of IEFE, the research centre of Bocconi University on energy and environmental economics and policy. She was also involved in the founding of the Centre on Regulation in Europe (CERRE), where she currently holds the position of Vice-chair of the Board of Directors. Additionally, she is a member of the Advisory Board of the Florence School of Regulation and of the Board of Directors of the Electric Power Research Institute (EPRI).

For her professional contributions to the regulation of the energy transition, she received the LUCE award for legacy women from the Florence School of Regulation and the Techno-visionaries award from the Women&Tech Association in 2023.

She is the author of numerous scientific articles.